

Education

IOWA PBS

Make sure to follow us on Facebook, Pinterest and Twitter to stay up to date on the latest and greatest.

Digital Opportunity

New adventures from Molly of Denali

In season 3 of the Molly of Denali Podcast the Arctic Wolf Junior Relay has come to Qyah and junior mushers from all over Alaska, including Molly's best friend, Tooeey, will be participating in the epic dog sled race! But when Tooeey catches a cold, Molly steps in to take over the sled. Good thing Suki's come along for the ride! Use the listening questions to guide conversation with young listeners! Each episode has 7-10 accompanying questions that help kids practice their listening skills. Questions range from exploring vocabulary to making smart guesses about what might happen next.

MOLLY OF DENALI Podcast

MOLLY OF DENALI PODCAST
Listening Questions

Episode 01: Let's Host A Race

It's just days before the Arctic Wolf Junior Relay dog sled race in Talkeetna, Alaska, and Molly is busy helping Tooeey train for the event. But when Talkeetna doesn't have enough snow it looks like the big race will have to be canceled.

What do you remember from listening?

- How many Huskies pull Tooeey's dog sled?
 Three Dogs.
- How long did it take Tooeey to get around the lake? Did he beat his record?
 12 minutes, 17.5 seconds, a new record for Tooeey.
- Who is Tooeey's hero?
Eugene Pike, the great champion musher.
- Do you have a hero or a person you look up to?
Share your answer.

 Find more games and activities at pbskids.org/molly

Kids & Family

Feeling safe

When a child endures a traumatic experience, the whole family feels the impact. But adults hold the power to help lessen its effects. Several factors can change the course of children's lives: feeling seen and heard by a caring adult, being patiently taught coping strategies and resilience-building techniques, and being with adults who know about the effects of such experiences. Here are ways to bring these factors to life.

Early Childhood

Snack Hacks

Snack Hacks are fun healthy recipes to make with your child that provide positive experiences with healthy foods. Spend some quality time together while building science, reading, and math skills. Create a 'Crispy Fruit Tree' forest with this recipe!

Elementary

Solids and liquids

Physical science can be a confusing topic for many children. In these Hero Elementary activities, children explore solid and liquid materials. They observe, compare, describe and sort solid and liquid materials. Find out how hot and cold can change the state of materials.

Secondary

Exploring dance and music

Tired of being cooped up after a long Iowa winter? Wish you could play in a pond like a duck? Come on an adventure with Peter and learn all about the musical instruments of the symphony as you watch Ballet Des Moines, the Des Moines Symphony and the Belin String Quartet perform Peter and the Wolf.

Meet the dancers and the musicians who performed in Peter and the Wolf and learn about what it takes to become a professional in the fields of dance and music with the Iowa PBS Performances PBS LearningMedia collection. Learn more about visual and performing arts in Iowa.

 Send to a Colleague

STAY CONNECTED:

Iowa PBS Education | 1.800.532.1290 | Email | Website